Impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal and Paternal Care of the Intereſts of Virtue, Learning and Religion, and of our happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, ſo eminently diſplayed in your own bright Example and gracious Government, we feel moſt thankfully the great Mercy of God, in His Preſervation of your Majeſty; and we pray that He would long continue to your Royal Conſort and Family, and to your Kingdoms, the ineſtimable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Life, a Life with which the Proſperity of all your Majeſty's Subjects is ſo intimately connected.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Worceſter, beg Leave to preſent our cordial and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the late Attempt on your invaluable Life.

Conſcious of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and firmly attached as we are to your Royal Perſon and Family, we return our moſt grateful Thanks to Almighty God, who interpoſed and preſerved to us the beſt of Kings. PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, with the warmeſt and moſt dutiful Affection, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty and the Nations you reign over, on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the late horrid Attempt againſt your Sacred Perſon, and to expreſs our Joy and Gratitude to a kind Providence for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life. It is a Conſolation to us to think that the Hand of Inſanity only was concerned in that Attempt, and that, ſecure in the Affections of all your Majeſty's Subjects, nothing but Inſanity could have prompted it. That your Majeſty's moſt precious Life may long be preſerved to diſpenſe Bleſſings to thoſe Kingdoms is the conſtant

Though we cannot reflect upon ſuch a raſh and impious Attempt without the ſtrongeſt Senſations of Horror, we feel however no ſmall Alleviation of our Concern in perceiving that it proceeded from a weak and diſordered Mind, and not from a regular concerted Plan againſt your Majeſty's Sacred Life and Government.

Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy, we moſt devoutly implore the Divine Influence to continue Its Protection over your invaluable Life, and to preſerve the Empire of theſe Realms in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe to the remoteſt Ages.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Peebles, aſſembled in our annual Meeting directed by Law, embrace the Opportunity of humbly preſenting to your Majeſty our warmeſt and moſt affectionate Congratulations upon your Eſcape from the late Attempt of Aſſaſſination, directed againſt your Royal Perſon, but prevented by the kind Interpoſition of Providence; an Attempt which could only have been prompted by Inſanity; for what elſe could produce a Deſire to bereave a Sovereign of His Life, who, from His private Virtues and tender Regard of the Conſtitution over which he preſides, reigns univerſally in the Affections of His People.

We pray that your Majeſty may be long preſerved to promote the Happineſs of your People, by your Example and Wiſdom of your Government; and when it ſhall be the Will of the Almighty to call you, Great Sire, hence, that your Virtues may be amply rewarded, and your Throne continued in the Enjoyment of your Illuſtrious Race to lateſt Poſterity.

Signed by the Præſes of the Meeting, in their Name and by their Appointment, at Peebles, the Third of October, in the Year 1786.

James Kennedy, Præſes.

The Seven following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of St. Andrews.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Profeſſors of your ancient and loyal Univerſity of St. Andrews, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations upon the providential Deliverance of your Majeſty from the Danger which lately threatened your Sacred Perſon.

Senſible of the Intereſt which all your Majeſty's Subjects have in your invaluable Life, and the many Bleſſings which they enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, we offer our earneſt Prayers to Almighty God, that He may continue to your Majeſty His gracious Protection, and long preſerve you to guard the Liberties, and to receive the ſincere Tribute of a grateful and happy People.

Kinnoull, Chancellor.
James Gilleſpie, D. D. Rector.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, your Freeholders of the County of Eaſt Lothian, in our General and Annual Meeting aſſembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ſincere and cordial Congratulations for the happy Eſcape your Majeſty has lately experienced, and at the ſame Time we gratefully acknowledge the kind and merciful Interpoſition of an All-wiſe Providence in preſerving a Life ſo eſſential to the Happineſs and Peace of Millions of People.

Full of warm and lively Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, we are perfectly convinced that Mad-

neſs

neſs only could have armed and raiſed the Hand of Violence againſt your Sacred Life.

Signed by Order, and in Preſence of the Meeting, at Haddington, this Third Day of October, 1786.

J. Hamilton, Preſes.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the Shire of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the Shire of Edinburgh, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments full of Loyalty and Affection, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Reign, and the Importance of your Life to the Proſperity of theſe Realms, render every Thing affecting the Safety of your Perſon juſt Cauſe to us of real Affliction and Alarm.

The King who reigns, like your Majeſty, in the Hearts, as well as over the Perſons of His Subjects, enjoys that higheſt of all Bleſſings, which is not always indulged to Royalty, of knowing that every Event which tends to diſturb either His public Felicity or private Repoſe, which endangers the Safety of His Perſon, or threatens the Security of His Throne, muſt inſtantly awaken in the Breaſts of a free and generous People, the moſt lively Feelings of Conſternation and Diſtreſs.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we ſhould, perhaps, have judged it unneceſſary to expreſs to our Sovereign our Gratitude to Heaven, and the univerſal Satisfaction and Joy which prevailed amongſt us on His Eſcape from the late Attempt on His Sacred Perſon; but being aſſembled together in our annual Meeting, we could not ſeparate without joining with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects in congratulating your Majeſty on the Preſervation of a Life ſo dear to us, and ſo intereſting to the Welfare of our Poſterity.

That your Majeſty may long live the Ruler over a free, a happy, a united and a grateful People, is our earneſt Wiſh and our ardent Prayer.

Signed by the Præſes, in Name and by Warrant of the Meeting, at Edinburgh, the Third Day of October, 1786.

Abercorn, Præſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Dumbarton, at their Michaelmas Head Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Dumbarton, at their Michaelmas Head Court aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, with Hearts replete with Affection and overflowing with Gratitude to Almighty God, for His gracious Interpoſition in reſcuing your Majeſty from the late Attempt made againſt your Sacred Life, which could only proceed from Inſanity. We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Feelings, when we reflect on the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, which ſo peculiarly inſures Liberty without Licentiouſneſs to this free and happy Country. It always has been, and ever will be, our earneſt and ſincere Wiſh, that Happineſs and Proſperity may ever attend your Majeſty's Perſon and Family.

Signed in Name, and by Order of the Meeting,

G. K. Elphinſtone.

Town-Hall, Dumbarton,
October 3, 1786.

Moſt Gracious Soverign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, preſume moſt humbly to join the general Voice of your People, by offering our ſincere Congratulations on the providential Deliverance of your Majeſty from the late atrocious and abominable Attempt on your Sacred Perſon.

We are convinced that none but the Arm of Madneſs could be raiſed againſt a Life ſo important to the Happineſs of your People and the Proſperity of your Kingdom; and we pray, that the Divine Providence may long continue to guard and protect your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life, and that your loyal and grateful People may very long enjoy the Bleſſings they derive from ſo good a King.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Common Council and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Loſtwithiel, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Common Council and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Loſtwithiel, humbly beg Leave to join the general Voice of your People, by offering to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late Attempt made upon your Sacred Perſon.

We are convinced that no Arm but that of Madneſs could have been raiſed againſt a Life ſo highly important to the Happineſs of your Subjects, and to the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms. May the Divine Providence, which in the late Inſtance has protected it, vouchſafe to grant that your Majeſty may for many Years remain a Bleſſing to theſe Realms, and long continue to reign over a loyal and grateful People.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bridgwater, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence at the late daring and dreadful Attempt made on your Majeſty's Sacred Life by the Hands of an infatuated Aſſaſſin.

Senſible of the great Importance of your Majeſty's Life to every Individual within your Realms, and impreſſed with the higheſt Sentiments of Veneration and Affection for your Perſon, we offer up our Petitions to the King of Kings for a Continuance of that providential Care which has ſo ſignally been exerted in your Majeſty's Preſervation.

That your Majeſty may long live the Pride and Glory of a grateful People, is the fervent Wiſh of your Majeſty's devoted Subjects.

John Crandon, Mayor.

The Four following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary

Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

At an Aſſizes held at Armagh, Auguſt 28, 1786, the following Addreſs was unanimouſly agreed to.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Grand Jury and others, Inhabitants of the County of Armagh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand Jury and Inhabitants of the County of Armagh, holding in juſt Abhorrence the late atrocious and unnatural Attempt made on your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the moſt dutiful and loyal Affection.

We eagerly embrace this Occaſion of renewing our Profeſſions of unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we have enjoyed under their auſpicious Government; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Paternal Affection of your Majeſty to your loyal Kingdom of Ireland, (impreſſed with indelible Gratitude on the Minds of your affectionate Subjects,) renders the Preſervation and Safety of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon the unceaſing Object of their Prayers.

[Signed by 97 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kerry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kerry, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty upon your happy Deliverance from a late atrocious Attempt.

Impreſſed with the fulleſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the Government of a Prince, whoſe Character is no leſs diſtinguiſhed for a ſacred Regard to the Duties of His exalted Station than for the many private Virtues which afford an Example to the beſt of His Subjects, we cannot reflect upon ſo baſe an Action but with Sentiments of Horror and Indignation.

The Spirit of Loyalty, called forth upon this Occaſion, muſt prove to your Majeſty how much you reign in the Hearts of your People. Permit us, in common with the reſt of your Subjects, to lay this our Tribute of Affection at your Majeſty's Feet, aſſuring your Majeſty, that a zealous Attachment to your Perſon, Family and Government, is as highly cultivated in the more remote Parts of your Dominions as in thoſe Places which are the immediate Witneſſes of your Royal Virtues.

May the ſame Providence, which hath already interpoſed to ſave ſo valuable a Life, continue to defend it, granting you a long and proſperous Reign over a happy and a loyal People.

[Signed by 46 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Governor, Nobility, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders aſſembled at Summer Aſſizes, 1786, for the County of Down at Downpatrick.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Governor, Nobility, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders aſſembled at the Aſſizes for the County of Down, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon to expreſs our joyful Satisfaction on the Failure of the late deteſtable Attempt made upon your Majeſty's Sacred Life.

We are filled with Alarm and Dread when we reflect upon the fatal Conſequences that muſt have attended the Succeſs of that frantic Attempt. To have been, by one fatal Stroke, deprived of thoſe Bleſſings which we have ſo long and ſo happily enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; to have had our beloved King, the Object of our willing and dutiful Loyalty and Obedience, the kind and indulgent Father of His People, thus cruelly ſnatched from us, would have plunged us into the Depths of Grief and Horror.

Thanks be to Providence, we are delivered from this dreadful Calamity, and we truſt ſhall long enjoy the Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution under the mild and wiſe Government of the beſt of Kings.

[Signed by 214 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Sovereign, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Belfaſt, in the County of Antrim.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Belfaſt, beg Leave to offer our heartfelt and ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late happy Eſcape from the imminent Danger which threatened your Sacred Life. Whilſt we thankfully adore that Divine Providence, which, in the perilous Moment, preſerved the Father of His People, and tremble on the Recollection of the raſh Attempt aimed againſt your Royal Perſon, we conſole ourſelves with the pleaſing Idea, that the dangerous Stroke was not ſuggeſted by a traiterous or malevolent Heart; it was directed by the ſudden Impulſe of Inſanity.

That the ſame gracious and protecting Providence, under whoſe Rule and Governance are the Hearts of Kings, may ever direct your Majeſty's Councils, may long ſpare your ineſtimable Life, and pour down Bleſſings with an unſparing Hand on your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Family, is the earneſt and fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful, affectionate and loyal Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have appointed the Reverend William Briſtow, Sovereign of Belfaſt, to ſign theſe Preſents on our Behalf, and to affix hereto the Corporation Seal of the Borough of Belfaſt, this Third Day of October, 1786.

William Briſtow, Sovereign of Belfaſt.
